

wnership of broadcasting and orther media should be diversified so all points of view may be known and debated before final decisions enacted.

Also so that news of international importance is diverse opinions.